

Zouk Mikael candidate for international award

November 10, 2012 01:13 AM

The Daily Star

BEIRUT: The Lebanese town of Zouk Mikael reached the finals in an international Award for Urban Innovation. The coastal town and Dubai were shortlisted in the finals of the Guangzhou International Award for Urban Innovation in China. The finals will take place between Nov. 14 and 17 in cooperation with the U.N. affiliated organization United Cities and Local Governments and the World Association of Major Metropolises in the capital of Guangdong, a Chinese province. The competition received more than 255 initiatives from 153 cities from 56 countries and provinces.